

Are you an animal lover?

Do you love cats & dogs?

Then we the Recovery Center East would like you to join us to volunteer at the Kent Animal Shelter on:

Saturday, January 6th!

We will be leaving from Synergy Center at 11:00am to visit the shelter. You will be able to hang out with the animals, comfort and pet them, walk the dogs, express your love to them, and get them out of their cages for some exercise and more human interaction.

Please RSVP

as soon as possible!

If you have not participated in this event in the past, you will have to fill out a volunteer form upon arrival.

Be sure to bring some money with you. We will be going out to eat afterwards.
